

FLY FISHING 101

Learn the “basics” of fly fishing in seven training sessions designed for adults. The first six sessions will be held at a classroom training site in Coeur d’Alene and will begin on March 28, 2007. The seventh session will allow you to put all of your class training to use during a one-day session “on the stream”.

Your instructors are seasoned men and women fly fishers from the North Idaho Fly Casters Club who are familiar with all aspects of the sport and are expert instructors.

Classes are limited to 50 students.

YOU WILL LEARN

Basic equipment techniques
Knots and Leaders
Entomology and Fly Selection
Stillwater Strategies
Casting and Fly Tying
Safety and Fly Fishing Ethics and much more

COST: $125.00 per person
